

FONDAZIONE
ROMA LAZIO
FILM COMMISSION

PRESS RELEASE

Networking Event Brings Producers Together at Venice — Hosted by European Producers Club & Roma Lazio Film Commission

VENICE, Italy — September 1, 2025 — The European Producers Club (EPC) and the Roma Lazio Film Commission successfully hosted an exclusive networking event on August 31 during the Venice Film Festival. The event brought together 50 EPC producers and representatives from the Roma Lazio Film Commission, fostering new opportunities for collaboration and co-production across Europe.

The gathering featured a presentation on Roma Lazio Film Commission's international initiatives during EPC plenary meeting, highlighting Lazio's position as a strategic hub for global audiovisual production and co-production. Following the presentation, attendees engaged in an informal networking lunch, creating valuable connections between European independent producers and their counterparts from the Roma Lazio region.

"Roma Lazio Film Commission has been a long-time partner, and we are grateful for their continued commitment to supporting independent European producers and fostering co-productions," said Julie-Jeanne Régnault, Managing Director of the European Producers Club.

"We are very happy to be here in Venice at the 82nd Venice International Film Festival with our activities and to share this networking event with EPC -European Producers Club and we hope to foster stonger collaborations with this important Association.

Fondazione Roma Lazio Film Commission wants to become a key point of reference for the entire regional film and audiovisual industry, recognized nationally and internationally for the quality of its service and support for productions.

We are working to expand our network of collaborations throughout partnership with cultural organizations and institutions, participating in national and international film network associations, creating exchange agreements with organizations involving young producers and artists. We have several opportunities like our coproduction fund "Lazio Cinema International", 10 mil euros each year. We look forward to helping you made your next project in Rome and Lazio come true," commented Maria Giuseppina Troccoli, President of Fondazione Roma Lazio Film Commission and Simone Fusco, Programming and Content Fondazione Roma Lazio Film Commission.

FONDAZIONE
ROMA LAZIO
FILM COMMISSION

About Roma Lazio Film Commission Foundation

The Roma Lazio Film Commission Foundation is a publicly owned, non-profit organization funded by the Lazio Region and Rome Capital. Its main goal is to promote the territory and support the development of the film and audiovisual industry in the first region of audiovisual industry. Through constant commitment, the Foundation provides production support, encourages collaboration between local and international professionals, and nurtures local talent, contributing to the cultural and economic growth of Lazio in Italy.

About European Producers Club

The European Producers' Club (EPC) is a network of 200 leading independent film and TV producers from across Europe. Since 1993, the EPC has provided a platform for collaboration, innovation and joint mobilization. It offers members a trusted space where they can connect, share ideas and promote the interests of European independent producers.

Press Contact:

Fondazione Roma Lazio Film Commission

Rome Lazio Film Commission Foundation
Via Parigi 11, Roma 00185
Email: info@romalaziofilmcommission.it www.romalaziofilmcommission.it

EPC – European Producers Club
info@europeanproducersclub.org
33 Avenue Philippe Auguste
75011 Paris, France